A CHINESE DICTIONARY
IN THE
CANTONESE DIALECT, BY DR. E. J. EITEL.

HONGKONG, 1877-1883.

Part I. A-K. . . . $2.50
Part II. K-M. . . . $2.50 Part III. M-T. . . . $3.00 Part IV. T-Y. . . . $3.00

A Reduction of ten per cent. will be allowed to purchasers of ten or more copies.

This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kangxi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphabetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student.

A Supplement, arranged for being bound and used by itself, and containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Surnames, will be published and sold separately.

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are of interest to the minds of students of the Far East, and about which every intelligent person contacted with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notices and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology,

Biology, Geography, History, Literature,

Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been added, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give criticisms embodying sketches of the most important works on each subject. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

and form an important means of obtaining from and offering among students knowledge on obscure subjects.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is unanimously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Edin, Bratschevich, Hirth, and Hancock, Professor Legge, and Messrs.
